

Dove Beauty Bar, RRP $2.15

The classic Dove bar gets the job done, moisturising without stripping the skin of essential oils, and contains 1/4 moisturising cream. The PH balance guarantees healthy, clean skin without the dryness of regular soap.

Dior Vernis, RRP $36

Red nails are essential for a glamorous look, no matter what the trends say. One of the best is this varnish in the decadent shade 'Holiday Red'.

Lucas' Papaw Ointment, RRP $5

The ultimate multi-purpose beauty product. Use as a lip balm and for blemishes, as well as an antiseptic on wounds and burns.

Arpège Eau De Parfum by Lanvin, RRP $175

This heady scent was created in 1927 by Jeanne Lanvin for her daughter Marguerite, and is famous for its elegant black bottle.

Clinique Perfectly Real Compact Makeup, RRP $48

This practical compact has been reworked for an ultra-modern finish, but the product is still the classic original foundation.

TIMELESS CLASSICS

Some products are so good they just never go out of style.

Yves Saint Laurent Rouge Pur, RRP $47

This gorgeous lipstick in 'Opium Red' is classic YSL, and the original 1970s gold packaging has really stood the test of time.

Elizabeth Arden

Elizabeth Arden Eight Hour Cream, RRP $34

Newly packaged, Elizabeth Arden invented this cream in 1930 to soothe her horses' hooves and discovered it worked a treat on lips and dry skin.

Eight Hour Cream

Skin Protectant
Baume Apaisant
Réparateur

Max Factor 2000 Calorie Mascara, RRP $20.85

Max Factor mascara was invented by Max in the 1920s, when black and white movies demanded glamour and a strong eye definition.

Chanel No5 Eau De Parfum, RRP $124

Created for Coco Chanel in 1921, this fragrance has such classic qualities that it's still with us almost 90 years later.

Diptyque Opopanax, RRP $95

Diptyque is the crème de la crème of exotic scents, and their candles have been world-renowned since they launched in the 1980s.